

IKEBANA INTERNATIONAL
DALLAS CHAPTER 13

IKEBANA FROM SOUTH OF THE EQUATOR

Thursday, October 15, 2009

9:30 am – 3:00 pm

Bent Tree Country Club
5201 Westgrove Drive
Dallas, TX 75248

“FROM OUR MIND TO OUR HANDS”

“From our minds, inspiration flows to our hands, enabling us to transform flowers into the delicate art of Ikebana. But this traditional, ancient Japanese art is not only about flowers; it also reflects the spirit and love for nature that our souls embrace.”

From KADENSHO, by First Iemoto Sofu Teshigahara, Founder of Sogetsu School

Professor Yu Mei Chen Montalvo, a Jonin Sanyo Sogetsu ranked- teacher, will join us from the Quito, Ecuador Chapter. Professor Montalvo, also a member in the Houston Branch, will demonstrate her inspiring and unique Sogetsu style. Program, buffet lunch, afternoon workshop plus Sensei’s individual critique of your arrangement.

$35.00 - program, buffet lunch, workshop and all materials

(With your confirmation of registration, you will receive information about the type of container and other items to bring, as well as directions to Bent Tree CC)

9:30 am registration & coffee

10:00 am to 3:00 pm program, lunch & workshop

For further information: Brian Dalton 214-536-9407

Detach Here Before Mailing

✂.....

NAME _____

ADDRESS _____ APT# _____

CITY _____ STATE _____ ZIP _____

PREFERRED PHONE # _____ e mail _____

Include your check for $35.00, payable to: Dallas Chapter 13; send this form and check to:

Brian Dalton
2400 Promontory Point
Plano, TX 75075
214-536-9407

Note: Please list any questions, special meal issues, accommodation assistance etc. on the back of this form.

For Chapter Use Date: _____ Check # _____
By: _____ Note: _____